To: All Branches

Dear Colleagues,

UK Top Dangerous Dogs Lawyer Trevor Cooper of Cooper & Co Solicitors (Doglaw Ltd) will be presenting two 1 hour webinar sessions this week, which will look in detail at Section 3 of the Dangerous Dogs Act 1991.

This live presentation will cover:

- When is a dog regarded as dangerously out of control
- What is the criminal liability for owners and those in charge of other people's dogs
- The difference between an aggravated and a non-aggravated offence
- The Householder Case defence
- The relevance of the Robinson-Pierre ruling
- What is an assistance dog
- Power of the Police and Council to seize a dog
- Sentencing provisions (including the 2016 Sentencing Guidelines)
- When is destruction likely to be ordered
- What is a Contingent Destruction Order
- Implications of a breach

Time permitting, at the end of the webinar, Trevor will be happy to answer questions on the webinar content

Doglaw Ltd is offering two opportunities to join this webinar:
